from Mr Wells

Monday 14th October 2024

Dear Parents/Carers,

I have begun my time with your lovely little school whilst Mrs Moore is away; and I've been warmly welcomed by the team, children & parents/carers that I've met so far.

For those of you I haven't met yet, I'd like to introduce myself my name is Martyn Wells. I am a father of three, godfather of three, uncle to two and husband to one. I have been the Headteacher of Claypole C.E. Primary School for the past nine years and have supported schools in a similar capacity like this before. All being well equally between Claypole & Brant Broughton (with one week being on-site three days; two the next) but I'm always contactable for both schools... and only 12 minutes away!

I have a copy of the School Development Plan and I intend to work through it with the team whilst I'm with you. I want to be able to do my best for the school & community. With that in mind, it would help to know the thoughts/feelings of the parents/carers at Brant Broughton CE & Methodist Primary School. Please find time to complete a quick 'Google Form' by following this link: <https://forms.gle/ShdamtZbVh1ef137A>

Celebration Assembly: Friday 18th October (8:50ish)

This Friday (18th October), after morning drop-off, families are invited into their child/ren's classrooms where the children will proudly share their learning. We are setting up 'learning stands' for the different subjects where children will talk about their learning this term. Adults can they move around the 'stands' and speak to all the children. If you can make it, we'd love for you to join us.

At the end of my Claypole weekly newsletters, I like to sign off with a[n] [inspirational] quote. So, with the week ahead of us - and in the spirit of collaboration & teamwork - I would like to share with you this quote from American author, Helen Keller, who said: "Alone we can do so little, together we can do so much." Have a lovely week.

Best wishes,
Martyn Wells
